Description

A 17th century oak and yew wood geometric fronted dresser base circa 1680-90. It has a plank top with moulded edges above three geometric moulded drawers, which are oak lined, standing on baluster turned front and straight back legs. The incorporation of yew wood gives it a wonderful rich colour and patina. It has minor period restorations including bottom drawer linings and probably the drop handles are replaced as to be expected for piece of this age. It would make a wonderful sideboard or grace any hallway as it is both practical and decorative
