Description

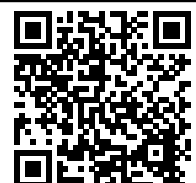

A stunning pair of Georgian style antique leather and mahogany armchairs, dating from around the 1930's period. The quality is fantastic, these are well built and very comfortable. The seats are well sprung, and they are upholstered in hand tacked leather. The cabriole legs and shepherds crook arms are beautifully sculpted from solid mahogany. We have had the leather hand coloured and revived by our leather restorer, so they are full of character. The mahogany frames have also been re-polished & these chairs are in excellent condition for their age. These armchairs would work well in many places in the home & could even be used as desk chairs.
