Description

Handsome mahogany chest of drawers represents fine period craftsmanship, featuring three short drawers above three graduating longer drawers, all in outstanding antique condition. Each drawer glides smoothly, constructed with hand-cut dovetail joints, and is decorated with delicate satinwood string inlay and elegant turned bun handles. As with all antiques, it carries subtle imperfections that add to its historical charm and authenticity. A remarkable example of period furniture, this chest boasts exceptional graining and a stunning patina, offering not just practical storage but a touch of history to any home.
