Description

A serpentine front to this piece standing on six turned and ring turned legs. Areas of fading to one side with a few pieces of veneer missing to that area, and tears to either side, see photographs. To one side is a pull out drawer, to the other side a cupboard and a narrow drawer to the centre, all with quality brass ring handles. Ebony inlays to front. As the description says, a little attention needed but because of it's small size, a very attractive piece.
