Description

A rather attractive 19th century antique cricket table having a circular elm plank top, raised on three straight legs. The legs are united by a triangular shaped under-tier shelf. A good example of an antique cricket table of neat proportions. Item Ref; M-2090 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 71cm / Width – 75cm / Depth – 75cm . CONDITION REPORT: This antique cricket table is in good antique condition throughout with some signs of age and wear. There is general surface wear in places including some age-related marks and staining to the top and to the legs (pictured). There is evidence of extensive historic woodworm throughout, including to the top, though this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The cricket table is structurally solid and sound and has been finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores all our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is home ready! Please take time to carefully look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of this item. .
