Description

A simply exquisite antique 18ct gold pearl and enamel brooch. The brooch was made in the late Victorian Art Nouveau period when precious jewellery was influenced by nature and smooth lines and curves to create wonderful designs. The nine graduated cultured pearls sit within the lily of the valley shaped frame adorned with vivid blue enamel and golden scrolls. The main structure of the brooch has been created in richly textured gold, perfecting the beauty of this stunning piece of jewellery. A part of our antique brooch collection.
