Description

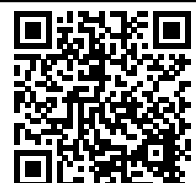

This is an antique umbrella stand. A French, brass hallway cane, stick or fireside rack, dating to the Art Nouveau period, circa 1920. Attractive early 20th century French taste. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Pleasingly weathered brass shows appealing finish throughout. Polished baluster finial standing above the whole. Elegant demi-lune brass hook in muted golden tones and of serpentine form. Standing upon a striking Art Nouveau floral base with rolled edge. This is an antique umbrella stand with desirable late Art Nouveau taste and attractive French craftsmanship. Perfect for the entrance hall or alongside an elegant fireplace. Delivered polished and ready for the home.
