Description

A good pair of antique French Armchairs, late 19th century, with arched backs, sprung seats and scroll arms with carved walnut front supports, raised on ring turned supports with original castors and upholstered in a mustard gold fabric with fringed skirt. In good condition overall, the upholstery is a little grubby in places, on one more than the other but I have not attempted to clean them. They are perfectly useable, however I can arrange re-upholstering if preferred - please contact me for further details. 95cm high, 72cm wide at the front, the seat 56cm deep and 37cm high.
