Description

A beautiful Victorian two stage corner cupboard. Having a moulded cornice above the two glazed doors which open to reveal a green painted interior. The right-hand door opens with a ceramic handle. The other however does not have a handle and is instead opened by turning the catch towards to top. The interior itself comprises of two fitted shelves, each with a series of small hooks underneath. At the mid-point it separates into two pieces. The base consists of two blind panel doors. Similar to the top section, the right door opens with the ceramic handle and the left has a similar catch to the top. It has a single fitted shelf. Raised on tulip-shaped feet. Item Ref; M-1994 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 201.5cm / Width - 105cm / Depth - 76.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There are no apparent breaks or cracks in the glazed doors. The piece is overall structurally solid and sound. It can be separated into two for ease of transport.
