Description

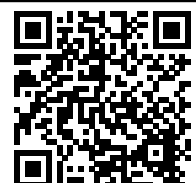

A beautiful Victorian two stage oak bookcase cabinet. It has carved, gothic detail throughout with moulded cornice. There are several carved lion heads, four of which have large rings held in the mouths. The glazed doors open to reveal two decorative, loose fitted shelves. This piece separates into two at the midpoint. The base has a single fitted drawer. Below it there is one fitted shelf behind two blind single panel doors. Item Ref; M-1674 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 220cm / Width - 111cm / Depth - 46cm / Surface Height 99cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some age-related marks to the surface top and front, with a small loss to the bottom right cornice as well as in general to the carvings (pictured). There is a split to the lower right hand side panel (pictured). Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
