Description

A lovely Victorian farmhouse table dating from the late 19th Century. It has a planked top and stands on square legs joined by side stretchers. There are two drawers on one side. It has a lovely mellow colour and a nice aged patina. It is a good size, big enough to seat 4 comfortably and the legs have been tipped to ensure it is a good height to sit at with ample leg clearance of 23 1/2" (60cm). Whilst it makes a perfectly good dining table the narrow proportions means it would also suit a hallway. There are signs of age and use and various marks in the top but it is in good condition and is strong and sturdy. It has been cleaned and lightly waxed and is ready for use.
