Description

Late 19th.c. Gothic pine credence or console table c.1900. Very solidly constructed in highly figured pitch pine. The top with an applied moulding to the edge on each side, over a decorative front featuring a pair of Gothic pointed arches with moulded trefoil tracery. Repeated as plain arches on the sides. Square legs and centre post, joined with square stretchers to each side, all with chamfered edges. Some old wear and a bit of a shadow where a dedication plaque has been removed. Generally very good condition. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: width 44", depth 23", height 35".
