Description

This is an antique male portrait bust. A Continental, plaster sculpture presented upon an oak base, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1860. Of striking appearance with shimmering tones and raw finish. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Plaster form finished with golden tones over a darker ground. Fascinating male bust with sculptor's inscription to rear - possibly reading 'Tocle Raised upon a circular oak base offering fine grain interest, dressed with leather pad beneath'. This is a charming antique male portrait bust, pleasingly naive and with beautiful colouration. Delivered polished and ready to display.
