Description

This is an antique highland lodge key keep. A Scottish, oak hallway rack, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Presenting delightful antique Scottish oak for the entrance hall. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select oak shows superb grain interest and medullary rays. Shield profile graced with rich caramel hues beneath the wax polish finish. Set of 8 decorative hooks in the form of the iconic Highland stag. Pair of mounting loops to rear for ease of wall hanging. This is an attractive antique lodge key keep, with striking Scottish oak and charming stag figures to each hook. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the reception hall.
