Description

A stunning example of a Victorian jewellery cabinet made from beautifully figured Walnut with outstanding polished brass fittings. This is a particularly large example having a fitted tray under the domed lid and three silk lined drawers beneath, perfect for storing those precious jewels. The top has a highly decorative brass mount, with a vacant cartouche in the the centre, which could be engraved by your local engraver if desired. The front doors are both glazed with thick bevelled glass in a gothic design. A wonderful example in excellent condition and complete with working key. 11" x 8" x 10" tall.
