Description

An early 18th century oak bureau with two short and two long drawers, a moulded edge around the top and the fall; it also has a book ledge. The drawers are oak-lined with later but old engraved handles and escutcheons. The interior fitted with drawers, pigeon-holes and a central cupboard, a sliding tray to a well below. Lovely size, colour and patination. Circa 1730 John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where – in normal times – we hold an Open Weekend every November.
