Description

A fantastic Victorian mahogany glazed bookcase. To the top there is moulded cornice and two decorative finials. The three glazed doors are opened with the use of a dummy key which serves as the knob when put into the locks (provided). These each open to reveal three fitted shelves. This upper section is flanked by decorative turned pillars. This item can be separated into two at the mid-section. The lower section has a moulded edge top, beneath which sit three single blind panel cupboard doors, each with raised, arched panelling. The central door is a dummy door, though the doors either side of it are opened with the dummy key similar to the glazed doors. The doors open to reveal a spacious interior with a fitted shelf running behind the dummy door. Raised on a plinth base. Item Ref; M-2063 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 213cm / Width – 161.5cm / Depth – 54.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some wear to the surface top (pictured), as well as some marks to the glazed doors (pictured), some chips and losses to the veneer in places (particularly towards the top left - pictured). Of good c...
