Description

C19th George II period revival walnut and parcel-gilt framed mirror of impressive proportions. Mid-Georgian period style mirror of William Kent design in the Palladian architecturally-inspired style. The frame with carved ovolo or 'egg and dart' detail, surmounted with a scroll 'broken arch' swan-neck pediment with a central carved and gilded 'spread-eagle'. The scroll arches with carved foliate attachments. The base of the frame with shaped corner outline and shaped apron with a carved and gilded central cartouche. All carving and gilded detail in good original condition, providing an attractive and decorative contrast to the dark polished figured-walnut veneered inner frame. The silvered mirror plate in excellent clean and clear condition, surrounded with a carved and gilded slip edge. The reverse with panelled backboards. A high quality mid C18th Georgian period style revival mirror of good scale and proportions, providing excellent period-style decoration and atmosphere. H 55" W 32" D 5" England c.1880
