Description

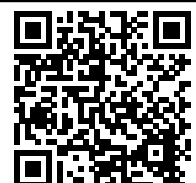

An attractive Edwardian mahogany display cabinet with decorative inlaid detail. To the top, it has moulded cornice and there is inlay throughout the front, with panelling to the front and sides. The glazed doors are in an art deco style, with glazed panels to the side. This is complete with a working lock and key for the doors, which have a bolted top and bottom. These open to reveal a spacious velvet interior, with three fitted shelves. There is a faded maker's stamp to the back. Raised on straight legs. Item Ref; M-1610 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 168cm / Width – 88cm / Depth – 32cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and losses to the top (pictured). The inlay and interior are in good condition. Of good construction. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take time to carefully look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
