Description

An attractive early 20th century antique oak settle bench. It has a four panel back and solid oak seat, which sits above a pull-down drawer. The drawer is flanked by fluted detail, has a brass teardrop handle and a central floral carving. Opening with a ball catch, this reveals a spacious under-seat storage area. The shaped arms are raised on turned supports. Raised on bun feet. Item Ref; M-2141 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 122.5cm / Width – 101cm / Depth – 51cm / Seat Height - 53cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related staining and marks to the seat and back (pictured). Losses to bun feet. Of good construction. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take time to carefully look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
