Description

This handsome small model boat would have been lovingly made by hand using metal and wood is painted in cream and green and sits on a wooden display stand. A fascinating period piece of folk art that looks great on display and is an unusual collectable talking piece. Condition: Good used antique condition with wear, marks, corrosion, chips and light dents. Has a wonderful patina. The wood stand is later. Please note that only the model boat and its stand are included and any other items in the pictures are for display only.
