Description

This is a wonderful antique Grand Tour patinated bronze model of Trajan's Column, circa 1820 in date. This splendid bronze with the relief cast stem and panelled plinth above a stepped Siena and black marble base. The spiralling column is covered in delightful bas-relief depicting the Roman emperor's victories beyond the Danube River. This stunning high-quality bronze is superbly cast and has an elegant patina. The attention to detail and quality throughout this piece is second to none. Condition: In excellent condition. As antique items, the column show signs of use commensurate with age, these minor condition issues are mentioned for accuracy and, as seen in the accompanying photographs, the column displays beautifully. Dimensions in cm: Height 29 x Width 7 x Depth 7. Dimensions in inches: Height 11 inches x Width 3 inches x Depth 3 inches. Trajan's Column is a Roman triumphal column in Rome, Italy, that commemorates Roman emperor Trajan's victory in the Dacian Wars. It was constructed under the supervision of the architect Apollodorus of Damascus at the order of the Roman Senate. It is located in Trajan's Forum, north of the Roman Forum. Trajan...
