Description

Antique silver Ehrhardt pocket watch & chain. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is by William Ehrhardt and is signed with the name of the retailer G A Baker, Gloucester. The movement is protected by an inner cover which is beautifully engraved with the wording, 'Presented to W E Harris by the Foreman and Employees on his leaving Atlas Works, Gloucester, Sep 1897'. Atlas Works was an engineering company in Gloucester Quays. The watch measures 52mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside both case backs for Birmingham 1894 with the sponsor's mark for William Ehrhardt. Overall, the case is in good condition with just the odd small surface mark. Originally there would have been engine turned detail to the back of the watch but most of this has worn down over the years. The main face of the watch glass is in good condition. There is a little nibbling and marking to the bevelled edge but nothing too serious at all. The dial is signed with the name of the original retailer of the watch, G A Baker of Gloucester who are still trading today. The dial looks good to the ...
