Description

A Fine Marquetry Longcase Clock by Henry Massy of London. A very fine quality marquetry 8-day longcase clock by Henry Massy of London, which dates from the late 17th Century. A good quality 11" square brass dial with early rack striking movement and 5 knopped pillars. A typical London marquetry/walnut veneered case, of excellent colour and patination. The dial with finely matted centre, seconds and calendar with the makers name to chapter ring. A highly attractive and outstanding piece from the golden age of clock making. Henry Massy was the son of Nicholas Massy who was a maker of great repute. Henry Massy was registered as working himself between 1692 and 1707. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 79" or 200cm CIRCA. 1700. Provenance: Private collection - U.K. Would you like to view this clock in your own home? Contact us to arrange a viewing with our Homeview service. (T&C's apply.)
