Description

Lions Eyes Automata Longcase Clock by Vurley of Wisbech. This fantastic longcase certainly is a talking point that catches most peoples attention, in the break arch of the 12" painted dial there is an amusing picture of a lion eating its prey, the deer, whilst the lions eyes go back and forth. The substantial movement is of 8 day duration with its original brass hands, striking the hours on a bell. The oak case is of good proportions and boasts its original pagoda with mahogany cross banding. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 84" or 215 cm CIRCA. 1820 Provenance: Private collection - U.K. Would you like to view this clock in your own home? Contact us to arrange a viewing with our Homeview service. (T&C's apply.)
