Description

A very fine small mahogany 8-day striking dial clock. The robust clock movement boasts substantial shaped plates, double fusees and anchor escapement, strikes the hours on a bell and has an 8-day duration. The small convex dial measures only 10" with Roman numerals and is signed "Thos Gibbs, Stratford" to the centre. A nice solid cast brass bezel surrounds the dial with a nice old convex glass. A very nice small striking dial clock. Thomas Gibbs: Born 1785 and registered as working in Stratford-upon-Avon (Warwickshire) from 1828 to 1854. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 13" or 33cm CIRCA. 1835 Provenance: Private collection - U.K. Would you like to view this clock in your own home? Contact us to arrange a viewing with our Homeview service. (T&C's apply.)
