Description

A beautiful 19th century oak cupboard. It has an arrangement of a single large drawer above two arched panel cupboard doors. The drawer comes with a working lock and key, and it also has decorative brass handles and back plates. The cupboard doors also have working locks. The left-hand door opens to reveal two, short, brass-handled drawers with a small storage space, whereas the right-hand drawer opens to a separate, larger storage space. Raised on bracket feet. Item Ref; M-2157 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 103cm / Width – 114cm / Depth – 48cm / Surface Height – 101cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including some marks and staining to the top (pictured). All locks are functioning, and the piece is structurally solid and sound. All drawers running smoothly. The handles have been replaced. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take time to carefully look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. . DELIVERY INFORMATION: Cost: £0.
