Description

A rare set of large silver plated bowls in the form of Georgian Salts. Standing on three hoofed feet. There are no makers marks, but these pieces probably date to c1900. A good weight and lovely design. The condition is very good with one small ding to one bowl and a couple of very very slight marks to the interior. Weighing a total of approx 1.4kg. Each bowl has a diameter of approx 14.5cm and stands approx 7cm high. Rare items of a novelty design.
