Description

A good pair of Edwardian leather upholstered club armchairs on original turned bun feet. English circa 1910. A well proportioned and comfortable pair of leather upholstered club chairs dating to the Edwardian period. The shaped back over out-srolled shallow buttoned armrests flanking sprung seat, decorated with individual brass studwork standing on the turned front bun feet and later brass castors. These antique leather chairs have been reupholstered with a quality russet leather hide which is then hand dyed using a traditional method. We specialise in leather upholstery and have sold many club chairs to interior designers, trade and private clients from all over the world. These club chairs will make a fine addition to any traditional or contemporary home.
