George III mahogany lady's open armchair with an upholstered oval back and padded arms on moulded supports; a fluted frieze and turned and fluted front legs with carved paterae at the top. Circa 1780 Re-upholstered and covered in Jim Dickens' Berrington Periwinkle fabric Measurements: 24 ½" (62cm) wide, 25" (64cm) deep and 37" (94.5cm) high [height to seat 17" (43cm)] John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where – in normal times - we hold an Open Weekend every November.
