Description

Two early 20th century turned wooden lamps painted with traditional Chinese garden scenes on a cream background. The elegant column is beautifully turned and terminates with a gilded reeded baluster section. The shaped base is painted with Chinese scenes and figures. Although we have not described these lamps as a pair, they are virtually identical. The condition is very good. They are wired to British mains system and have been Pat tested. The shades are not included. Two super lamps to fit with a traditional or modern setting. c. 1920
