Description

A delightfully exuberant impressionist floral still life by Marie Lucie Nessi-Valtat (1910-1992). Marie Lucie studied with André Lhote, at the Ecole des Beaux art and at the Académie de la Grande Chaumière from the age of 18. She was part of the circle of Montparnasse artists Léonard Foujita, Jean Hélion, Moïse Kisling. In 1932 Marie Lucie Nessi married Jean Valtat, the son of Post Impressionist master Louis Valtat, whose work influenced on his daughter-in-law's art. After acclaimed one man shows in renowned European galleries galleries such as the Parisian Galerie Bernheim-Jeune, Marie Lucie Nessi-Valtat signed a contract of exclusivity with Wally Findlay Galleries in 1972, which led her to exhibit in New York, Chicago, Palm Beach and Beverly Hills. Our painting by Marie Lucie Nessi Valat is an oil on canvas measuring 38 x 46 cm. It is signed and dated the lower left. The overall framed size is 53 x 62 cm (some wear to frame)
