Description

19th Century French Pine Farmhouse Kitchen Glazed Dresser This is a good country piece, it dates from the late 19th century The top section has two Glazed doors enclosing a shelved cupboard, this is set off with a deep cornice. The base of the dresser has two drawers over two panelled cupboard doors, this too is shelved The dresser is in sound condition with a rustic appeal, a few worm holes but these have been treated and killed in the stripping process, and it would work very well as either a kitchen dresser or as a bookcase The dresser is 79" high but it does break down for transport, it is 47.5" wide and it is 20" deep, the counter top height is 38" TGB596 We Give Free Delivery to Mainland England, Wales, Scotland and Islands please enquire Delivery times vary according to your location usually 7 to 28 days We operate an online store and regrettably viewing in person and collection is not an option at this time.
