Description

An excellent example of a George III period mahogany chest of drawers. Very well constructed in solid Cuban mahogany and with solid oak drawer linings. The rectangular top is surrounded with thumb nail moldings and sits over an arrangement of 3 graduated drawers. The drawers are all fitted with their original solid brass hardware. With canted corners inset with reeded columns and standing on bold ogee bracket feet. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops to a very high standard. Offered for sale in excellent condition with a splendid colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 117cms Depth 58cms Height 92cms
