Description

A handsome antique English cut glass jar topped with a sterling silver and blue enamel top. The silver is fully hallmarked for London 1904, an Edwardian example; together with the makers mark for the highly regarded silversmiths, Charles and Richard Comyns. The stunning blue coloured guilloché enamelled lid is clean and bright showcasing the attractive engine turned decoration below. Excellent condition without damage to the enamel; one tiny scar to the silver, mentioned and shown purely for accuracy. 3 1/8" x 2 1/8" x 3 7/8" tall. Item: 40014
