Description

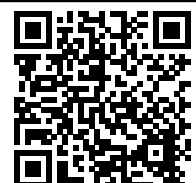

This is an antique coopered barrel stick stand. An English, oak and brass hallway portico, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Of tight oval shape and pleasingly weathered. Displaying a desirable aged patina. Oak staves show appealing grain interest beneath a wax polish finish. Brass coopering with light tarnishing commensurate with age. Dressed with the Royal Coat of Arms of the United Kingdom. This is a charming antique coopered barrel stick stand, with wonderful patination and of superb oval form. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
