Description

George III mahogany linen press c.1810. Two door top with three sliding shelves over a chest of two short and two long drawers. Elegant uncluttered design almost completely free of any applied decoration, attention instead is focused on the symmetrically arranged grain of the door panels. Simple flared cornice, brass door trim, turned drawer knobs and particularly attractive and original turned bun feet. Superior quality with solid mahogany doors and drawer fronts, slides and sides to both the top and bottom. Excellent colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Key supplied. Dimensions: width 49", depth 22", height 78½".
