Description

This Georgian bow fronted corner cabinet is in tidy but unrestored condition, a couple of small repairs over the last 200 years but very much original. Boasting a working lock with key and the original brass H hinges it is a slightly rarer example being in Oak. The timber is quarter sawn which brings out the attractive graining and the doors have a mahogany crossbanding. Inside is painted green which is pretty common for these and there is a felt lining which can remain or be removed if required with ease. A genuine item in tidy condition at what must be the keenest price around now, £285 Sizes below are on the cornice for width and depth. give us a call if you would like to discuss, delivery £60/70 to most parts of the country or collect for free of course. 01565 874075
