Description

Danish sterling silver gilt and enamel Christmas spoon. 1965. This series of spoons was started by the silver smithy Anton Michelsen, Copenhagen in 1910. They made a different shape and pattern every year, with different designers creating a varied Christmas theme. This design is called "The Christmas Tree", and was designed by the Swedish jewellery designer Theresia Hvorslev. The spoon is 16.5cm long and is in very good vintage condition.
