Description

A good English oak side table with single original frieze drawer and lovely bobbin turned legs with original stretchers. Original twin plank top and ovolu moulded border. The drawer is solid oak lined with hand cut dovetails and nailed up base - correct for period. Wear, dings and marks consistent with age. Handles have considerable age - not original but of appropriate design and solid brass. Drawer front has old crack - very stable and not going anywhere. A heavy and sturdy 330 year old table with really good deep colour and smooth worn feel that only centuries of use, wax and care can bring. The dimensions of the table are: 29 inches high, 34 inches wide and 22 inches deep. Internal height of drawer is 3.5 inches and height from floor to lowest edge of frieze is 22 inches.
