Description

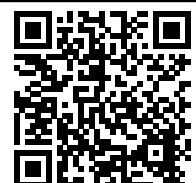

An unusual and intriguing antique oak carved desk. Throughout the top is carved floral detail. The carved front opens to reveal several arched pigeonholes and drawers with brass teardrop handles on floral backplates. To the centre is a large cupboard door with further floral carved detail. Under this are two carved drawers with brass handles, flanked by pull-out leaves. These pull-out to support the hinged writing surface. Raised on four turned legs with tulip-shaped feet and stretcher supports. Item Ref; M-2225 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 109cm / Width – 91cm / Depth – 57.5cm / Surface Height - 74cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and wear to the top, front, and inside writing surface (pictured). Minor staining on top. Age-related shrinkage gap to desk panel. Both drawers run cleanly and smoothly. Losses to both rear legs (pictured). Evidence of minor historical treated worm to the back and back legs.
