Description

Fabulous Victorian satin wood dressing table in wonderful antique condition. The original mirror, elegantly upheld by scroll-carved supports, rests atop two petite drawers, adding both functionality and charm to the piece. The attractive satin wood surface, framed by a moulded edge, houses a long central drawer alongside two side drawers, all adorned with original turned knobs. The left pedestal features three spacious drawers, while the right pedestal offers three tray slide drawers and a large central cupboard, ensuring ample storage. Resting on a sturdy plinth base with castors, this timeless piece combines practicality with sophistication, making it a beautiful and versatile addition to any interior.
