Description

For your consideration is this Impressive 1930's modernist mantle mirror clock, no makers name and sourced in Germany. This clock is quite large , see dimensions and so has a real impact not just by how attractive it is but also by it's size. In lovely condition, the chrome work is as good as you could hope for from this era. The mirror is free from any damage, including chips, grazes, foxing or silver loss. A great size too and ideal for statement piece for areas like mantle and desk or sideboards. This is a battery operated clock and is in good working order. Anyone who admires modernist pieces from the 1930's and also collects clocks will know how hard these are to source, very seldom do they come onto the market and often when they do they are with some sort of damage. This timepiece definitely won't disappoint. FREE UK delivery.
