Description

Gents 1950s Oris wrist watch. The watch has a Swiss 7-jewel hand-winding movement which is working nicely. The watch measures 32mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The main body of the case is chrome plated, there is rubbing to the two right hand lugs and general surface marking but overall acceptable for a 1950s piece. On the back of the watch, there is rubbing to the lugs, and some marking around the opening to the movement. The case back is stainless steel, signed to the inside with the Oris name, some surface scratching and a small "ding" to the outside. The lens is in lovely condition. The signed dial is in its original finish with subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. The hands would have had infill originally but this has been removed over the years. A new leather strap has been fitted. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
