Description

An attractive and excellent quality 'Smoker's Bow' or 'Captain's' armchair dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a comfortable wide and deep elm seat with broad arms, shaped reeded spindles and turned legs joined by double turned stretchers. It is approximately 31" (79cm) high and it is 26 1/2" (67cm) wide across the arms. The seat is approximately 19" (49cm) deep and 18" (46cm) high. It is in good condition for its age. It has developed a nice aged patina and is a strong and sturdy chair. The chair is not without a few small marks and signs of age and use but no major damages or anything detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
