Description

What can only be described as an exquisite solid silver Trinket Box! This box is oval shaped. The hinged lid is decorated with very pretty engraving and is embellished with a beautiful wavy edge border. The body of the box is a lovely plain polished silver and stands on four decorative feet. Very clear hallmarks are visible to the underneath of the box, for the Birmingham Assay Office with a date mark for 1910 and Lion Passant indicating the finest sterling silver. The silver maker's mark is also clearly visible for: Henry Matthews. Partial hallmarks can also be seen on the lid lip. When opened, a the lovely lemony gilt interior is displayed on the underside of the lid and the interior is dressed with green velvet. The box is nicely proportioned (6.2 cm deep x 8.5 cm width x 3.8 cm height approx.) and as well as being beautifully ornamental is practical to house special trinkets! This is a very special box, outstanding in its appearance, is unusual and rare, and in lovely antique collector's condition. The craftsmanship of the silversmith is very apparent! Hallmarks: Birmingham 1910 by Henry Matthews. Measurements: Height: 3.8 ...
