Description

This very GRAND STAFFORDSHIRE FIGURE, entitled 'WILL WATCH' to the base in gilt, dates from circa 1860. WILL WATCH was a legendary smuggler and brigand and was a character portrayed in many a Victorian Melodrama, hence the theatricality of his stance. The Figure is full of colour and vibrancy. The quality of the decoration and the depth of the colours, especially his pink stockings and paisley breeches, are notable. This portrayal has every quality that makes a Staffordshire Figure desirable. A similar Figure is illustrated in A & N Harding's Victorian Staffordshire Figures Vol 1, Page 332, Figure 1222. The condition is good. There is no restoration. Height: 13 inches (33 cm) Delivery within the UK is included. We are happy to quote for Overseas Shipping on request.
