Description

George VI mahogany library bookcase This George VI mahogany library bookcase was made in one of the prestige workshops of the period. It would have been sold in one of the top end retailers of fine items, probably Harrods. The cabinetmaker selected the best Georgian design before making this fine bookcase. Having the desirable swan neck cornice with applied floral decoration. The glazed top with fine astragals dividing the glass with doors open to reveal adjustable shelves, that allow you to select the shelf height required. The base with a pair of oak lined drawers fitted with the original brass swan neck handles, below the drawers is a double cupboard fitted a shelf. The cupboard doors with circular panels and then standing on bracket feet. Imagine how much pleasure this bookcase will bring you, as it is not only wonderful to look at, it also provides fantastic storage for a library of books. 126cms wide 49 1/2ins 32.5cms deep 12 3/4ins 230cms high 90 1/2ins Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference. Delivery We can arrange free delivery to UK mainland; we also have a reliable and good delivery service...
