Description

A mid Victorian mahogany extending dining table, the rectangular top with moulded edge and rounded corners and with two additional leaves, with a winding mechanism allowing the table to be extended either by one or both leaves, on turned reeded supports with ceramic castors. Winder supplied. English circa 1870. Dimensions: H: 74cm W: 99cm L: 120cm (closed) L: 217 (fully extended) Condition: Overall very good, there are one or two scuffs to the edge which will be removed, and the leaves are somewhat darker than the rest of the top, however it is in very good condition, the mechanism works well and the top shuts tightly.
