Description

Oh this is so gorgeous. This stunning antique diamond and pearl crossover ring features a certified natural saltwater pearl of a smooth, creamy lustre which sits next to a bright and lively old European cut diamond. The stone is secured in a six claw platinum collet with subtle stylised heart motifs in the gallery. The two gems sit either side of an elegantly curved platinum band set with twelve eight-cut diamonds. Accompanied by a pearl report from Gemmological Certification Services (GCS) stating the pearl is natural, saltwater. Also accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30308928). Cut – The main diamond is an old European cut with eight-cuts in the shoulders. Colour – The main diamond is I. The diamonds in the shoulders range from F to J. Clarity – The main diamond is SI2. The diamonds in the shoulders range from SI1 to I1 (all are clean to the naked eye). Carat – The main diamond is a known 1.11 carat, with a further approximate 0.18 carat in the shoulders. Circa – 1915. Size – I (i) (UK) or 4.25 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can go up or down. Measurements – The pearl is approximately 7.6 x 7.2. The diamond is approximately 6.7 ...
